Countries:
Georgia, Ukraine

EU contribution: € 1 580 000

Implementer:
Danish Refugee Centre (DK), Mariupol Youth Union (UA), Education development and employment center non-entrepreneurial (GE)

Project description:
The Project aims to enhance the livelihoods of internally displaced and conflict-affected youth and foster their meaningful participation in society – targeting two regions (Shida Kartli, Samegrelo) in Georgia, and Donetsk oblasts in Eastern Ukraine.

The Project aims to increase educational, employment and entrepreneurial opportunities for IDP and conflict-affected youth, as well as to strengthen state-civic cooperation over youth education, employment and entrepreneurship issues through advocacy and capacity-building of government institutions.

Expected results:
- Internally displaced and conflict-affected youth have the skills and knowledge to apply for jobs and financial services and benefit from sustainable livelihood solutions.

- Civil Society, private sector stakeholders, GoG and GoU institutions research and apply best practices to joinyly work, efficiently plan and implement youth education employment, as well as entrepreneurship programs.
