Project description:

Three activity clusters are interconnected and address violence against women holistically on a micro, mezzo, and macro level: At the macro level, the activities focus on improving legislation regarding sexual crimes, access to justice, and response mechanisms on a state-level; at the meso level, they are focused on raising awareness about domestic violence and gender equality, reproductive health, and women's rights; and on the micro level, they are focused on empowering women and girls via direct support services.

Expected results:

Improvements in legal reforms related to sexual crimes; Improved access to justice for women who have been victims of sexual violence; Increased response mechanisms by local authorities to prevent gender-based and domestic violence; LBT women and sex workers integrated in national, regional, and local policies. Increased awareness on gender based and domestic violence, gender equality, reproductive health and sexual rights and women's rights ; Access to essential, safe and adequate multi-sectoral services is improved for women victims of GBV, domestic violence, and sex workers in three regions of Georgia;
