The project supports the implementation of the Pilot Integrated Regional Development Programme (PIRDP) and the Decentralization Strategy 2020-2025 in target regions through policy development, capacity building of national, regional and local authorities, improved service delivery and enhanced public engagement at the local level.

Expected results:
Inclusive and evidence-based policymaking at national and regional/local levels
Broader access to user-centric, high quality and accountable public services
Fostered public participation in the planning and implementation of regional/local development projects
Actions in support to implementation of the national Decentralization Strategy
