Project description:

The project is focused on the integration of persons in conflict with the law into the society through the establishment of cooperation mechanisms among civil society organizations (CSOs), business companies and State actors. As the first step, an extensive media campaign was developed to attract the main target audience (probationers, inmates, and former inmates), simultaneously social and job skills trainings, as well as informational meetings, are being held in different parts of Georgia.

Expected results:

- 2 Human interests video stories on successful cases of beneficiaries.
- 24 Posters on international and local research.
- Study tour for Georgian Government representatives organized in Berlin, Germany.
